From Audrey's Heart to Yours

Beloved ones,

In recent times, I shared a word on "God's Word" power packed with blessings!

Blessings we can pray into our lives! Let's look together at one verse in Proverbs 3:6 "In all your ways acknowledge Him, and he shall direct your paths."

Two words in this passage are especially significant-the words "ways" and "acknowledge". The word "ways" (Hebrew derek) means "a road, a course, or a mode of action." It suggests specific opportunities a person may encounter on a recurring basis. The most common "segment of opportunity" we experience regularly is each new day. It is as if this passage suggests that in all our "days" we should acknowledge God, and in so doing He will direct our paths.

Of equal significance is the word "acknowledge" (Hebrew Yoda). Elsewhere yoda is translated "know" meaning to know by observation, investigation, reflection or firsthand experience.

But the highest level of yoda is in "direct intimate contact". This refers to life giving intimacy, as in marriage. Applied to a Spiritual context, it suggests an intimacy with God in prayer that conceives and births blessings and victories. Joined to our Proverbs text, we might conclude that if in all our "days" we maintain yoda (direct, intimate contact with God), God promises to direct our paths toward fruitful life-begetting endeavors.

To "know" God and His will, fully pleasing to Him whom we love, be faithful, strengthened with all might going forward. Pray often Col. 1:9-13 + Jer. 33:3+6

Shalom Blessings, Love and Prayer,

Rev. Audrey Mabley
